

Dear Em. Prof. Gottfried Konecny,

It is a great pleasure to congratulate you on the occasion of your 90th birthday, and we are happy to join and share this event!

There are no words be exact and reflecting your activity and individuality. You are a great scientist and the great person! We are truly grateful for having met you and for the opportunity to communicate with you, to listen to you, and to have the best view of all the doings for the benefit of science, photogrammetry, human communication and friendship. You inspired us how to study, communicate and work, how to be persistent and patient. You have a huge number of friends and students sharing with them by your knowledge and skills.

On behalf of ISPRS Working group V/7, on behalf of your friends and colleagues from Novosibirsk and other Siberian regions, from Kazakhstan, where you left a piece of yourself, we wish you good health and great happiness, new creative achievements, talented students, and reliable friends.

We are with you!!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Kind regards,

ISPRS WG V/7 members:
